Foreword

North Central, North Central Oh, deep from thy rugged walls, Tis a solemn spirit Calls thy children true. Proudly we sing thy praise In these glad high school days. Honor for honor due, All hail to North Central high.

The 1959 Tamarack honors the fiftieth anniversary of North Central. Designs on the cover and throughout the book represent these golden years.

The division pages are symbolic of everyday activities which in future years will bring back wonderful memories. Fo the students and teachers who have made the past fifty years indeed golden, we dedicate this book.

Half a Century . . .

A doorway to the future . . . to new aspirations, to dreams come true—to further education, business opportunities, marriage, fame and fortune? Who could know what lay beyond the doors of this, their beloved school . . . North Central!

Could those 287 freshmen and sophomores who first enrolled at North Central in September, 1908, possibly have known what the name "North Central" would mean to future generations?

* * * * *

J. Herman Beare was principal of North Central in 1908. The incomplete, U-shaped structure had 12 rooms and 12 teachers that fall. Students were enrolled in one of five courses — classical, scientific, literary, commercial or manual arts. Lunches were packed at home, and cocoa, coffee or milk purchased at school for 3 cents a cup.

A second wing, including a lunchroom in the basement where lunches were sold for 10 cents, was completed in February, 1909.

Invasion by the Lewis and Clark Tigers occurred in 1910 after a fire destroyed much of their school—the South Central. For three semesters the two schools existed in the same building and claimed the same colors—blue and white.

* * * * *

Thanksgiving day, 1912, marked the beginning of a lasting rivalry clash, the traditional North Central-Lewis and Clark football game, played annually at the fairgrounds. Everyone in town would turn out, and North Central won two out of every three games.

In 1912 Vox Puellarum (Voice of the Girls) was organized as the first club at North Central; and North Central graduated its first class of 87.

1.. C. Bradford (Brad), debate coach, and Miss Jessie Gibson, girls' adviser who arrived at North Central in 1913, were the founders of the Boys' Federation and the Girls' League, respectively.

4 4 4 4 4

The Federation was started with the purpose of permitting boys in school to meet obligations of the nation in time of war. The boys participated in Red Cross, YMCA, relief and thrift drives. After the war, the Federation was reorganized to meet peacetime requirements.

Girls' League originally had four departments — social service, patriotic, personal efficiency and entertainment. Each girl was a member of one department.

Federation and League executive councils joined in March of 1922 to form the Associated Student Council. A new constitution in 1951 brought about the present Associated Student Body.

* * * * *

Under the direction of Ernest E. (Dad) Green, the presses rolled out the first copy of The North Central News on September 25, 1917. Until that time, the Tamarack was an all-school magazine, published every six weeks. It had many names from 1916 to 1924 when it became the traditional Tamarack upon a suggestion of Richard Hargreaves, principal from 1909 to 1918 when A. H. Benefiel took his place.

Although now the library and the cafeteria are taken for granted, in 1918, the year they were completed, they were a "special treat." With seating space for 185 persons, the library included a consultation room and librarian's workroom.

In 1920, the Federation originated the Red and Black Carnival to stir up enthusiasm for the Thankgiving game. The Associated Student Council, the League, the Federation and each club conducted a concession at the carnival. Ruled by a queen and her court, the carnival was an event not only for the students and their families, but for their neighbors and everyone.

Projects were undertaken by the student body during the years 1924-26 to raise funds for a much-needed playfield. Leveling the field and getting it in shape was done by the students. Bleachers were built in the manual training shop, and it was a big day when the first event was played on the new field in April, 1927.

* * * * *

C. Olin Rice, the conductor of the first operetta in 1924, staged the show annually until Mr. Taft took his place in 1947. Each year, work was started on October 1 for this December production. The music festivals today replace the operettas of yesterday.

Last year, the gala talent show, the Doll Shop, was presented for the fourteenth and final time. Each girl or boy who ever danced as a clown, a penguin, a Raggedy Ann or Andy, has wonderful memories of his part in the biennial show of which Miss Pinkham has always said, "There are no small parts, just small people."

Graduates of 1925 no doubt recall that they were the first to wear caps and gowns. Standard navy blue, wool dress for each girl was adopted in 1925 and worn from November to April. Semester tests were discarded in 1927 and replaced by topic tests every six weeks.

* * * * *

First invited to Wenatchee in 1926, the band once again attended the celebration this spring. The Red Feathers made their first "Apple Blossom" trip in 1951 on the band's twenty-fifth anniversary.

The first girls' marching unit in Spokane, the Red Feathers, organized by Miss Pinkham to encourage mass participation and give every girl a chance, appeared at school in 1938. The name was chosen through a school contest, the uniform was designed by the art department and the pattern was cut by the home economics department.

Swimming was again a part of the physical education program when, after being floored over for 11 years, the pool was rededicated in 1943. A new filtration and chlorination system were added.

Joseph M. Tewinkel, a 1919 graduate of North Central, became its principal in 1946, replacing Frederic G. Kennedy, principal since 1922.

Formerly the Baxter Hospital gymnasium, the new combination gym and music department was dedicated February 26, 1948, after having been remodeled by the school district. New auto mechanics and electronics shops were installed in 1951 and 1953 respectively.

* * * * *

Now it is 1959 and North Central is 50 years old. Thousands are proud that they have walked in her halls, studied in her classrooms, learned from her teachers and made friends among her students.

This spring over 600 young men and women, who have completed their high school studies, will walk through the doors of North Central into the future. Leaving us also are five beloved faculty members who have given unselfishly of their time and talent to North Central students through the years. We salute Miss Pinkham, Miss Rawlings, Mr. Bradford, Mr. Chandler and Mr. Randall, "Honor for honor due, all hail to North Central High!"

Fifty Golden Years!

North Central High School has achieved distinction in many ways. Reaching its golden anniversary this year is just one milestone in a galaxy of events — all marked with that precious item, quality.

Students in their undergraduate years reflect the excellent instruction provided at North Central. As adults in the community, they are recognized as leaders. Everywhere they display a spirit of co-operation, responsibility and a sincere interest in school and community affairs. Mirrored in their lives are concepts that were developed during high school days.

May the 1959 graduates traverse a path dotted with many golden stones.

Thoughts on a Golden Anniversary

With the publication of another fine Tamarack, we celebrate the golden year of a wonderful high school and the graduation of a record class.

But, to paraphrase a loved statesman, "in a larger sense" ALL the years have been golden. Our generation has lived in a golden age, the age of great advantages for the common man, the age of fantastic educational opportunities for all who are wise enough to profit by them.

From the halls of a fine public school have poured for 50 years the greatest potential a nation produces—youth of substantial training and sound character values: Doctors, attorneys, business leaders, educators, scientists, clergy, statesmen, fathers and mothers of integrity.

North Central glories in their accomplishments. They are the "gold" it has refined for America.

And what of the class of '59?

With you go our good wishes and highest hopes. You have left behind a perpetual record of "bank deposits." Colleges, great industries and financial houses through the years will inquire about you.

North Central can help you. Your past record is important. The future is even more so.

We hope that people will say in describing you, "He has one of the ablest minds in the community." "He's always on the ball."

By the very act of finishing high school you have demonstrated that you have a mind adequate for future building. The job is only started. Education does not stop with any graduation. Make it a lifelong challenge!

Just two more injunctions to go with our good wishes:

- 1. You've known the bounty of 12 good years of schooling. Perpetuation of our American way of life demands your loyalty to public education and your support, in turn, of comparable opportunities for those who follow you.
- 2. Learning is not enough. The basis for a successful life is deeply rooted in character and spiritual values. Never slight them.

May all your years be Golden ones.

Vice-Principal Lowry Bennett talks with Jim Delameter and Don Heyer about an academic problem

Mr. Edward Gill, as office assistant adds another student to his enrollment chart.

Many duties fall on the shoulders of Vice-Principal Lowry Bennett. Presiding at convocations, directing football practices as head line coach and advising the newly formed boys' cheering section are some of his more pleasant assignments. All disciplinary problems are also handled by Mr. Bennett.

Room 227 plays an important part in every student's academic life. Schedule changes, class adjustments and requisitions are obtained from Edward Gill, office assistant, and George Theodorson, school treasurer.

Mrs. Stoner, Mrs. Daves and Mrs. Jennings hard at work in the office as Mrs. Baumgartner fills out an early dismissal for Annie Blossom.

A complete academic and activity record of every North Central student is kept by the office staff. Job applicants and aspiring college students turn to the office workers for grade transcripts and recommendations for prospective employers and for colleges.

Other duties of the secretaries and book-keepers include the recording of attendance, the issuing of temporary dismissals, the greeting of all guests, and the preparing of the daily homeroom bulletin to inform students of all school activities. Even with these many duties, the secretaries are always ready to help students with problems.

Miss Damon and Mr. Bradford consult a permanent record folder before giving advice to a student.

na, publications adviser; Lorraine McNew, English.

To help students to use good English effectively in oral and written communication is the goal of the English department. The English courses I-VI provide instruction in techniques of reading and interpretation, in fundamentals of correct speech and written composition, and hope to instill in each student an appreciation of his American literary heritage. Senior literature and composition provide experience in studying world literature and in writing the longer research-type theme.

News Editor, Kay Hutchinson seems to be enjoying her consultation with sports editors Gary Carpenter and Gary Kurtz.

Using the Library card catalogue to find information for their term papers are seniors

Bricker Cortner, Deedy Gerl, and Madeline Riches.

The English courses have been expanded to include every phase of language usage. Journalism offers the talented student the opportunity to express himself through weekly publications and the yearbook. Work in drama classes gives the student a study of the history, background and terminology of the theater as well as an opportunity to participate in acting or in producing one-act and longer plays. Debate teaches the student how to do research, to analyze his information and to present his conclusions forcefully.

Mr. Nygaard shows Carol McLellan and Tim Mayhew the intracacies of a trig problem.

Over the door of his famous academy in Athens, Plato placed the inscription: "Let no one destitute of geometry enter."

One of the chief characteristics of the present time is that the human mind is asserting itself largely through the power of mathematics. Colleges are emulating Plato by raising the mathematical requirements in nearly all departments of instruction. Students of mathematics in our schools should now be more vigorously "disposed to learn" than ever before.

SCIENCE

An ever-changing world challenges both the student and the teacher. The science department introduces a basis for study; students then have the opportunity to choose the scientific phases which interest them most.

In the biology courses, students learn the science of living things. Physics brings forth an interest in the forces which challenge the minds of modern society. Learning the wonders of chemical composition thrills chemistry students. A study of rocks and minerals is introduced through geology.

In the chemistry lab we find Dick Franks collecting a gas over water and Mickey Brenton working with a desiccator,

SOCIAL STUDIES

Through a knowledge of their economic, social and political systems we are able to understand the unrest in various parts of the world caused by the infiltration of world communism and its threat to America's security.

To help the students to know and appreciate their heritage and what America should mean to them, the social studies department has a well-balanced program including: World, Northwest and United States history, economics, social psychology, current problems and geography.

Sandra McCaughan and Florence Humphries appear interested in the spot on the map pointed out by Dave Cassidy to a United States history class.

Paying close attention as they practice in typing I are Steve Potter, Betty Sears and Bonnie Somerville.

Offering two years each in typing, shorthand and bookkeeping and one year of office practice, the business education department prepares graduates for office positions. Valuable personal-use information may also be obtained.

For vocational use, the student should plan a schedule to include four semesters in either bookkeeping or shorthand. Enrolling in these subjects during the last semesters of school will mean that the skills will be usable when the student enters the business world.

Phyllis Todd and Jean Custer demonstrate techniques used in leather tooling in a crafts class.

Students of the fine arts department explore specialized phases such as fashion design and oil painting after learning the basic principles of design and colors.

In the foreign language department students learn about a people through their language. Essential to this modern civilization is a knowledge of other lands.

The music department attempts to give students an understanding and appreciation of all types of music. This understanding provides an enduring basis of enjoyment and pleasure through a broader understanding of modern culture.

HOMEMAKING LIBRARY STUDY HALL

The fundamentals of homemaking are essential to every girl. Clothing and foods are first presented through elementary courses for freshmen and sophomores. With this firm basis, students are able to expand their talents in sewing construction and food preparation. Additional classes for interested girls are offered in social relations, home furishings, child development and tailoring.

A knack for cooking and an interest in foods brings boys into the unique chef class for juniors and seniors.

Mrs. Dunphy catching Dick Voss reading a magazine in study hall amuses the other students.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Boys who are interested in any of the trades find industrial arts courses very valuable. Mechanical drawing is essential for prospective engineers.

After elementary study, wood shop students enjoy constructing boats, water skis and furniture. Car enthusiasts, through auto shop, learn to mold their interest into a constructive trade. Boys and girls, using ingenuity, construct useful and ornamental articles in the plastic classes. Other industrial arts courses offered include mechanical drawing, metal shop, architectural drawing and electronics.

Left to right: Earl Tripp uses the table saw in woodshop as Mark Schroeder, Dennis Smith, Dan Vannurden, Larry McCauley and Gerald Goodman await their turn.

"Point those toes, girls!" Mary Engle, Freda Brown, Cecelia Reuss and Joyce Hauschild exercise in a physical education class.

Physical education offers to every student the opportunity to keep his body strong and well through exercise and fun. The department offers the students a chance to participate in exercising, dancing, tennis, skating, bowling, basketball, badminton and many other activities. Girls gain posture, poise and confidence. Sportsmanship and co-ordination are features in the boys' department.

Only by maintaining a clean body can a student have a clean mind. This principle is the goal of the physical education department.

As the graduat: grasps his diploma he feels a sense of accomplishment and appreciation for a well-rounded education. In years to come, he will value his learning even more as he realizes it is a necessity for advancement in an age when the premium is on adequate education.

SENIOR COMMITTEE CO-CHAIRMEN—Denny Ashlock, co-chairman of the Prom committee, listens with interest as Judy Conklin and Bob Bruya, co-chairmen of the Convocation committee, discuss plans for the convocation. Jo Storch, co-chairman of the Prom committee, is not pictured.

North Central graduates over 600 seniors—its largest class in 50 years—in baccalaureate and commencement exercises at the Coliseum this spring.

In January, the class under the guidance of Mabel S. McLaughlin, class adviser, elected five officers to organize senior activities. Each officer worked with one of the committees—Jim Moore, president, convocation; Bill Bailey, vice-president, prom; Gerry Livengood, secretary, breakfast, and Mel Stapleton, alternate, commencement.

SENIOR COMMITTEE CO-CHAIRMEN—Linda Poulin and Mike Lampert, co-chairmen for the senior picnic, and Jack McCoy and Clint Britt, co-chairmen for the breakfast, talk over plans for these two events scheduled for senior week. Clint will be master-of-ceremonies at the breakfast, May 29. The picnic is held annually at Wandermere.

A combination baccalaureate and commencement exercise is the topic of discussion when Ron Becker, Janet Johnson, co-chairmen of the caps and gowns committee, and Dick Burris and Kay Hutchinson, co-chairmen of the commencement committee, get together.

Seniors busily marked calendars and date books months in advance of the anticipated activities. A typical calendar included the following schedule of events: April 7, the senior convocation presented for the student body; May 23, the senior prom where students in formals, tuxedoes and all the trimmings dance to live music in the lobby of the Davenport hotel; May 27, dress-up day when seniors wear their "Sunday best" to school; May 28, the annual senior picnic at Wandermere; May 29, the senior breakfast in the Spokane Hotel Silver Room; May 31, baccalaureate-commencement exercises at the Coliseum.

Each event was planned by the cooperative efforts of officers and committee chairmen and members. Committees included: Senior picnic—Linda Poulin and Mike Lampert, co-chairmen; Joyann Obde, Jerry Coolbaugh, Susie Stretch, Jim Ellsworth, Janice Corrigan, Wes Johnson, Nonie Ross, Ron Albo.

Senior convocation—Judy Conklin and Bob Bruya, co-chairmen, Mickey Brenton. Myron Congdon, Buzz Davis, Janice Lundy, Janet Gleason, Gary Morgan, Sonie Nelson, Ron Odell: Senior prom—Jo Storch, Denny Ashlock, co-chairmen. Judy Bennett, George Beaton, Judy Chesrown. Jo Green. Paula Heyer, Linus Morris, Bill Sperling, Larry Summers.

Brad McHenry, Diane Rothwell, Judy Bennett and Larry Summers pause in front of the Freedom Shrine on Dress-up Day.

Janet Gleason, Joanne Johnson and Sonie Nelson check out caps and gowns from Ron Becker in the library.

Application of knowledge and correct study habits which may be developed by students of all classes during the high school years make the difference between the mediocre and the successful student. The same attributes which carn an A on the report card will be of value to the student throughout his life.

Students in this section are arranged according to class level.

Social growth is stimulated by participation in school activities. Leadership and confidence are gained as students fulfill the duties of officers in the various clubs and organizations. Co-operation is developed through serving on committees to plan meetings, service projects and fundraising events. Most important, every participant forms new friendships and interest in each activity which he pursues.

Fall Associated Student Body

"Busy as bees" is the motto of the Associated Student Body as it seeks to promote the general welfare of the school.

The House of Representatives, as its name implies, consists of one person from each homeroom and represents the student body at house meeting each Thursday morning. The senate, made up of one boy and one girl from each class plus the Federation and League presidents, meets each Tuesday morning to discuss and settle problems of the students government. Faculty advisers are Edward Gill and Delbert Jones.

Standing committees and their chairmen are selected each semester with the approval of the senate. Committees include dance, election, honors board, convocation scheduling, school finance and scholarship.

The fifth annual get-acquainted mixer in September was the beginning of a good year for the ASB. Then followed a Halloween mixer, the Sadie Hawkins dance and the Superstitious Stomp, a Friday the thirteenth mixer. Color week and "How" day with "how" cards promoted interest and enthusiasm in both sports and activities.

The sliderama, one of the biggest and most worthwhile projects undertaken, was created to give new students. PTA members and everyone interested a better look at North Central.

Decorating the Christmas tree, taking care of needy families, sponsoring the door-decorating contest and the presentation of the annual Christmas convocation revealed North Central's Yuletide spirit.

Spring Associated Student Body

Homeroom of the Year contest, started in 1957, was continued this year. Each homeroom was judged on its activities, its honor roll and homeroom average, its Christmas door decoration, its charitable work, ASB and Girls' League attendance, its bulletin board and PFA and homeroom attendance.

Spokane city high school ASB presidents met this spring with Dr. George Werner, head of physical education in the city schools, at Webster school to establish a new Coliseum seating arrangement at basketball games. At a later meeting at the home of Lewis and Clark's ASB vice-president, ASB officers from each of the city high schools discussed ways to improve various projects, activities, ideas and problems of their respective schools.

The basketball banquet March 30 at the Desert hotel, a pitching machine for the baseball team, night baseball and a roller skating party were projects sponsored during the year.

Twenty-eight historic American documents, among them the Monroe Doctrine and George Washington's farewell address, were received from the Exchange Club and are on display in the main hall.

Kwak Yong In, a Korean war orphan who was adopted by the ASB five years ago, was sent supplies and money at intervals during the year to continue his high school education.

The Associated Student Body had a busy year conducting its "government of the students," by the students and for the students."

Qualifications? Be a girl. Vivacious. shy, short, tall, slender or chubby, it makes no difference — every North Central girl is a member of the Girls' League.

Talents of all types are put to work throughout the year on a bevy of projects and activities. Plans are "born" in Central Council meetings composed of the League officers and homeroom representatives.

First on the fall calendar was the annual Big Sister program in September. Dads were entertained by their daughters at the "Trick or Treat" banquet October 30. In November, the girls sponsored a Thanksgiving convocation with Boys' Federation and collected food for needy families.

Numerous activities including the "Mistletoe Magic" mixer, a pancake breakfast, visits to the "adopted lady" at Lakeland, sponsoring Courtesy Week, a pep con, and a travelogue Coke party gave eager girls opportunities to serve their school, and make new acquaintances.

Spring Girls' League

Spring projects were launched by the purchase of guards for last semester's officers. Other spring projects included ordering for all the girls cards which were printed with the League Creed, writing a prayer for Central Council and buying North Central folders to be sold in the bookroom.

Traditional activities included the style show of new spring fashions, a Mothers' Tea, and co-sponsorship with the Federation of co-recreation night.

Three mixers highlighted spring activities. The first was in the old gym after a basketball game. A carnival theme was used for the Cotton Candy Carousel, the annual Cotton Day mixer. Golden Anniversary was the theme of the evening mixer on May 8.

The League presented its fifth annual Big Sister award to Annie Blossom at the awards convocation during which a bronze, silver, gold, or gold pin with a ruby are awarded, depending upon a girl's service to the school.

Mr. Bradford has been truly a great inspiration to the boys who have had the privilege of knowing and working with him.

> In Appreciation, The Boys' Federation, Maynard Moe, President

When the Federation was organized in 1918 by Lowell C. Bradford, the boys were helping with community drives during the first World War. Later, in co-operation with the League, under the Associated Student Councils, the Federation promoted the first Student Conduct Board, and help institute the first school dances, recreation nights, and vocational conferences.

This year's activities included a new boys' stag and an orientation convocation at the beginning of the school year to help incoming freshmen and other new students to become familiar with the school and its activities.

The Archie Buckley Inspirational Award, presented annually by the Federation to the most inspirational player on the football team, went this year to Mickey Carney.

Needy families in the community were taken care of at Thanksgiving and at Christmas. Other activities of the Federation included Co-Recreational Nights, co-sponsored with the League, and two pep convocations—one preceding North Central's last season football game with Lewis and Clark, and the other for the promotion of spring sports.

On the list of special projects were their three spring tournaments — the annual novice debate tournament for beginning debaters, the novice track meet for boys not on school teams, and the open swim meet for all boys.

"Today is the deadline!" These words ring throughout the newsroom each day, for deadlines must be met in order to get The News to press on time.

The News staff writes and edits copy, makes up the pages and reads galley and page proofs. The paper is printed in the print shop of the Technical and Vocational school, under the direction of Don Townsend.

Advertising plays an important role in newspaper work.

Mike Merriman, Nancy Pare, ad solicitors, Kay Brunell, ad manager, and Gerry Featherly, solicitor are conferring wich each other about copy.

Feature writers "admiring" their stories in the current issue are Judy Carson, Jo Collett, Judy Huss and Julie Warfield.

Lynne Larson, reporter seems to be receiving a great deal of help on her story from Karen Rickets, exchange editor, Bob Bruya, feature editor, and Joe Perez, news editor.

Examining trophies the North Central News has won are Mickey Brenton, managing editor, Nancy Noonan, editor-in-chief for spring semester and Jim Dewey, editor for fall semester.

News Staff

The News took top honors at the Northwest High School Press Conference at Gonzaga University last fall when it won the sweepstakes trophy and placed first in class A competition. Both the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the National Scholastic Press Association have awarded The News highest honors for the past 23 years.

under the supervision of Miss Mary Mc-Kenna, publications adviser.

Outstanding writers on The News staff are selected for membership in Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists. Each semester four members of the staff are elected to the Spokane Junior Press Club.

Debate Jeams

Who said chivalry is dead? Dave de Vidal holds the door for fellow debaters Joyce Hauschild, Bert Pence and Mary Alice Lyons who are headed for a tournament.

Both beginning and advanced debaters entered the Pacific Lutheran College Tournament at Tacoma and returned with second sweepstakes, first place debate, first place interpretive reading, and third place extempore, in the Senior Division and first place extempore in the Junior Division.

North Central was also represented at the College of Puget Sound Tomnament, the Northeast District Speech Tournament, and the Northeast District Novice Tournament.

Advanced debaters showed their skills this year in League competition where they won second place, and again in the Northeast District Tournament where they tied with Lewis and Clark for first place, entitling them to enter the State Tournament in March.

Zuill and Scroll

Copy, deadlines and copyreading are familiar to members of Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists.

Members are recommended by Miss Mary McKenna, publications adviser, if they do outstanding work on The News and Tamarack and if they maintain a grade average in the upper third of their class.

North Central's chapter, organized in 1939, is named for Edward R. Murrow, a graduate of WSC and a vice-president and commentator of CBS network.

Projects, under fall and spring presidents Nancy Noonan and Jim Dewey, included Christmas for a needy family, a literary contest, a dinner party and the annual sale of plastic yearbook covers.

Gary Kurtz and Karen Ricketts sort poems and stories which were submitted to the first annual Quill and Scroll writing contest.

Catherine Sander, Mrs. Stockdale, Mrs. Griggs.

Commercial Club

Working on the Commercial club service project are Karen Coleman and Karen Graupner. Members typed over 11,000 new library cards.

A job well done by the girls of Commercial Club this year was the typing of 11,000 special library cards being used now in the new book-checking machine. Other projects were the polishing of trophies in the trophy cases, stuffing envelopes for the Easter Seal Campaign, and the sponsoring of a typing contest.

In November, the group entertained Rogers Commercial Club at a Coke party. In December, their Christmas party was devoted to wrapping gifts for their needy family.

To become a member of Commercial Club, a girl must have a C average in all subjects, at least four credits in business education, and a passing grade on a general test given by the club. Girls from all grade levels are eligible if the requirements are met.

Future Teachers of America

"Pickles, pickles—buy a pickle for a nickel!" The annual Future Teachers of America pickle sale was high on the agenda of projects to raise money for the $50 teaching scholarship awarded annually to a graduating senior who is entering the teaching profession.

The members also sponsored a matinee, a grab bag sale at Christmas time, a PTA bake sale and an old records sale.

Teacher training projects included a talk on the educational program offered at WSC by Virgil E. Geiger, supervisor of cadet teachers in Spokane, visits to area colleges, a panel discussion with cadet teachers, and instructions on using a movie projector.

Fun and food were plentiful at the potluck dinner and installation of officers held at the Carnation room.

Caught sampling pickles for the FTA pickle sale are Ruth Olsen and Judy Conklin. Proceeds went toward their annual $50 Teaching Scholarship.

Latin Club Roman banquet while Sue Helsby fans him. Betty Helbig looks on.

"Pugnate" comes the cry from the Latin Club side of the basketball court. The annual royal battle between Math and Latin Clubs is being fought.

Roman food and dress marked the end of the present and a lapse into the past when Latin Chib had its Roman banquet in March. Initiates, dressed as slaves, served "their betters."

Activities included a convocation at which David Holmes, head football coach, and Lowry Bennett, football line coach, were honored. At another convocation, pictures of Miss Elsa Pinkham and Lowell C. Bradford were presented to the school.

Senatus Populus Que Romanus or The Senate and the Roman People is Latin Club's official title. Purpose of the club is to promote friendly relations among Latin students. Anyone who is enrolled or has been enrolled in Latin is eligible.

Spanish Club

"La Tertulia," the Spanish equivalent for "social gathering" or "circle of friends," was the original name of the Spanish club. Edith Broomhall, a former North Central teacher, organized the club in 1913 with the purpose of promoting interest in the Spanish language and history.

When first formed, the club restricted membership to girls, but later the qualifications were changed to admit the boys. To qualify for membership in the Spanish club, a student must be enrolled or have been enrolled in Spanish and have at least a C grade average.

To provide information about the Spanish language and culture and to encourage the use of the language of Spain and Mexico is the purpose of the club.

Meetings consist of one business and one social gathering a month. Walter Mayer, Spanish teacher, is adviser of "La Tertulia."

"I Just washed my hair," exclaims initiate Marcie Dungan as Freda Brown, Joe Barrow and Karol McGaw prepare to 'give her the works.'

Math Club

Puzzled by a tricky mathematical problem on the Math club bulletin board are Cecelia Reuss and Richard Franks.

Solving 373 x 453 by logarithms may seem impossible to some students, but members of Math Club can solve it without much effort.

The Mathematics Club was organized for students whose primary interest is mathematics. Membership is limited to students who have been curolled in three or more semesters of math, who have a B average and who are able to pass an entrance examination. Mr. Barnard, of the math department, is club adviser.

A lecture on stereophonic sound by Ed Williams of the Bell Telephone company highlighted the February business meeting. A progressive dinner in April and the annual Latin Club-Math Club basketball game were important events on the calendar.

A math contest for lowerclassmen was premiered this year. As in former years, the club sponsored the annual Math contest open to all North Central students.

THREE C'S—First row: Lucille Arnett, Darlene Eveland, Sharon Freeby, Kathie Kringle, Helen Schubert, Dennis DeMinter, Carolyn Clayton, Mickey Brenton, Edith Knapp, Connie Olsen, Linn Edmonson. Paul Norris, Terry Thatch, Rod Niemeyer, Mr. Russell.

Three C's

Co-operating not only with fifteen Youth for Christ clubs in this area, but with clubs all over the world, the Three C's meets weekly to promote Christian fun and fellowship among high school students. The Three C's are symbolic of clean living, clean character and clean speech.

Friday morning meetings feature musical talent, group singing, student and outside speakers and skits. Included in this year's calendar of programs were a Christmas musicale, a Top Tunes contest, the showing of the film "Going Steady" and an Easter program. Sponsoring a Bible quiz team, a preacher boy, and musical contestants and taking part in YFC rallies were among the club's activities.

Membership is open to all interested students and is retained by consistent attendance. High lights for the more than fifty members this year were the annual "Hayloft Hayoc" and the formal Lilac Time banquet.

Preparing for Bible quiz competition are Edith Knapp, Ken Kringle, Dave deVidal, Aaron Knapp and Connie Olson,

Stan Bronowski provides enjoyable entertainment with his rock and roll in the convocation sponsored by Talent Club.

Proceeds were used to purchase a phonograph.

"On stage for curtain call!" Many are the curtain calls for Talent Club members each time they represent North Central with a program. The group appeared numerous times throughout the year before civic, church and school organizations.

The principal aims of Talent Club are to perfect the amateur entertainer's specific talent and to give him the additional poise and self-confidence which is essential while performing for the varied audiences who might—and do—call upon the members for entertainment purposes.

Perhaps the most vivid experience in the minds of a large percentage of Tau Chi members is the program they presented for the patients at Baxter Veterans hospital this spring. Another high light was a convocation given for the purpose of purchasing a record player, which will be used only by club members.

The spians

A hush falls over the audience as the curtain goes up. But back stage all is bustle and excitement as 'Thespian troupe members go into action to make this performance "the best yet."

Thespians are drama students who have earned 15 points by participating in plays and other productions—acting roles and working behind the scenes. Adviser of Troupe 628 is Mrs. Genevieve Oppen, drama teacher.

In addition to help in producing two plays this year, Thespians planned a party for the cast of each play. The troupe sponsored a morning mixer, "The Dozen Drag," as a money-raising project and as publicity for the fall all-school play. The annual hoagie party and the graduation party honoring senior members were in May. Troupe members looked back on a busy and enjoyable year.

Last minute "touch-ups" are familiar to members of Thespians. Above, Dick Burris helps Carol Peterson before stage call.

Medecine d'Avenir

"Oh no! Not shoe polish" is the plea of initiate Ginny Brookman. Colleen Wood seems to be enjoying her task.

Touring the Eastern State Hospital in December highlighted the activities of Medecine d'Avenir this year. As guests of Future Nurses of America, club members visited the patients and toured Fairchild Hospital February 21.

Medecine d'Avenir, organized by Gary Burrus, a 1956 graduate, became a school club in the fall of 1955. Students who have a 2.5 grade point average and who have the desire to enter the medical profession are eligible for membership. A major in mathematics or science is also recommended.

A morning mixer, "Hypo Hop," and the first formal installation of officers were important events on the club calendar. Walter Spangenburg, of the science department, is adviser. Mary Alyce Hobbs and Doris Knowles, seniors, served as president during the year.

Vox Puellarum

Advertising all North Central functions, the bright new plastic signboard prominently displayed within view of passers-by is a present to North Central from the girls of Vox Puellarum.

To finance the project. Vox girls sponsored a mixer, a rummage sale and various noontime sales. The principal fund-raising project was a pay convocation entitled "Vox-field Follies Presents 50 Golden Years at NC." Singing and dancing their way through 50 years of history, the girls not only enjoyed themselves, but learned "what went on back when."

Vox Puellarum (voice of the girls) was organized in 1913 as a girls' debating society. The club has many traditions. One is the annual presentation of the Vox award to the girl who under the greatest handicaps has accomplished the most in high school.

Amores Librorum

Judy Lawrence, Sharon Lenhart and Mickey Brenton are compiling a list of suggested reading books. Members wrote to the Washington state colleges to get the information.

Principal project this year of the members of Amores Librorum was the writing of letters to the colleges throughout the state asking for titles of five to ten books that college-bound freshmen should have read. When the answers were received, a list of the books recommended was compiled and posted in the library for the use of students and teachers.

Amores Librorum, "Lovers of Books," was founded in 1937 by Miss Mary Bacon, former head librarian. Miss Madeline Carroll is the present adviser. To be eligible for membership one must be on the honor roll and be interested in books.

Junior Press

Interviews with visiting celebrities and people in the field of communications highlight the activities of Junior Press Club, an all-city organization for high school journalists. Each semester four members of the publications staffs are selected for membership.

Aquettes

Interest in synchronized or competitive swimming and willingness to improve in the sport are requirements for membership in Aquettes. Mrs. Bess Milton, Red Cross swimming instructor, and Miss Mildred Burdick of the faculty are the advisers.

Reading to patients in pediatrics at St. Luke's hospital was the project of the Future Nurses of America group each week. Other projects included the annual sneak breakfast, a mother-daughter tea and a box social.

70astmistresses

To improve oral expression of thought through study and practice in conversation, public speaking, and analytical listening is the objective of North Central's newest club—Toastmistress.

TOASTMISTRESS—First row: Jeannette Fraser, Naomi Ross, Alice Akan, Pam Fouts, Sue Helsby, Kathy McDonald. Second row: Sue Spear, Mary Bailey, Janice Corrigan, Judy Conklin, Carol Moscher, Mary Alice Lyons, Peggy Webber, Mrs. Coon. Third row: Nancy Walter, Paula Heyer, Mary Alyce Hobbs, Joyce Hauschild, Karin Weitz, Sharon Gemberling, Linda Poulin, Julia Kyle.

Warriors

Sponsorship of a convocation was the top money-making project for Warriors this year. Funds in their treasury are used to finance athletic projects, sports banquets and to purchase trophies.

Rifle Club

Firing as a team for the first time this year in interscholastic competition. Rifle Club members participated in matches with other schools. Rifle Club sponsored the Washington state hunter safety program.

Cheaper by the Dozen

Twelve children ranging from the kitten to the economy size prove a problem for father Gilbreth, played by Bob Bruya, when the older girls revolt against high-topped shoes and cotton stockings in the fall play, "Cheaper by the Dozen."

Mr. Gilbreth is known throughout the world for eliminating waste motion in factories, and, according to him, there is no reason why his family cannot operate in the same manner. Not a minute can be wasted. There is a method for everything from taking a bath to buttoning a vest.

Mother (Janet Gleason) is really the backbone of the family, but in her tactful way makes Father believe he is.

Dad knows he hasn't long to live because of a bad heart, so he prepares his family to go on without him. But a conflict arises when Ann, the oldest girl, (Janice Lundy) buys a teddy and silk stockings. Of course, the boys side with Father against such a disgraceful thing. Simply that the Gilbreth girls (Karen Wirsch, Ricki Bassett, Carol Peterson, Mickey Brenton) are the only ones still wearing cotton stockings and high-topped shoes at school is not reason enough to change.

What goes on in the mind and heart of a father having twelve children is shown by Dad in his handling of this situation.

As the curtain falls, we see Mother as she assumes the task of chairman for the family council, knowing that father is gone on his last tour and will not return. The children, unaware, carry on as before.

(right, upper) "I'll see if she's around," Lyle Carstens yells into the receiver of the telephone as Janice Lundy, Carol Peterson, Karen Wirsh, Mickey Brenton and Ed Lamphere tug at him desperately.

(right, middle) "And I'm going to wear them," shouts Janice Lundy as Carol Peterson and Mickey Brenton back her up while Father (Bob Bruya) looks on astonished.

Each in a characteristic pose of his part in the "Puppet Prince," is Jerry Raver (Seamus O'Schaughnessy), Karen Wirsch (a doll in the toy shop), Carol Peterson (Nicollette), Dick Burris (Prince Nikki), Glen Talbott (Magnus), Lyle Carstens (a leprechaun), Bobbie Galbraith (a customer), Dick VanCamp (Bugle), Jo Collett (the Duchess of Umbrage), and Bob Bruya (High Cockolorum).

Children's Theater

The Puppet Prince, a delightful fairy tale, was skillfully performed by the drama classes in February for the Children's Theater. The sets were designed by Keith Willett, a junior from Shadle Park high school.

The High Cockalorum (Bob Bruya) had the children screaming with laughter, while Magnus the Magus (Glen Talbot) brought intrigue and mystery into the plot.

Prince Niccolo (Richard Burris), had been chauged into a puppet by Uncle Magnus, but Scamus O'Shaughnessy (Jerry Raver), Nicollette (Carol Peterson, Ricki Bassett) and the Leprechaun (Lyle Carstens) were able to break the spell and free him forever.

The production was directed by Mrs. Genevieve Oppen, drama coach.

Dick VanCamp puts the finishing touches on a door used in the stage setting of the "Puppet Prince," as Larry Schroeder, Dick Burris and Bob Bruya contemplate the remainder of the set blueprint.

The Three Fives

The Three Fives presented programs for various organizations—civic, business, fraternal and school.

A high light was their participation in the annual "Snow Queen" program at Whitworth college. Another well-remembered event was their engagement at Shadle Park high school when they sang for the final judging of the Spokane district Miss America pageant. They also presented programs for several conventions, among them, the Inland Empire Farm Forum, the Spokane County convention of the Republican Club, the Northwest convention of the Insurance Women and the National convention of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

Appearances in the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Associated Student Body convocations, the Spring and Winter Music Festivals and Commencement exercises include school activities in which the girls participated this year.

Three Fives, originally organized in 1951 at Havermale junior high school by John Harris, head of the music department at Shadle Park and a North Central graduate, became a North Central group in 1953. Since then, this popular group of 15 vocalists, together with their accompanist, has gained repeated respect and compliments on their professional-like poise and appearance. This poise, which has been acquired through meeting and singing for the public, has won many a Spokane audience.

Posed in the background throughout the entire presentation and representing brilliant Christmas tree ornaments are Bonnie Raney, Beverly Stradley, Pat Callahan, Jackie Stone and Jennifer Eacho.

Phyllis LaBarge, Sharon Fleenor, Judy Conklin, Deedy Gerl, Sandra Gallemore and Janet Hopper take a bow as the audience applauds their part in the Waltz of the Flowers, finale of "The Suite."

Sue Nelson and Linda Davis, accompanists of the Three Fives and choir, respectively, display their talents in the two-piano accompaniment of "The Nutcracker Suite."

Winter Music Festival

"Music is the universal language of mankind."—Longfellow

Outstanding performances have been provided this year for both school and community activities by the various musical organizations of North Central, under the direction of W. Stanley Taft.

The week preceding Christmas vacation was a busy one for the choral groups, beginning with a radio broadcast sponsored by the Washington Water Power company in which the choir and Three Fives represented North Central. These groups also provided the musical portion of the traditional Christmas convocation, followed by caroling in the halls.

Highlighting the Christmas season was the music department's presentation of the fifteenth annual Winter Music Festival, featuring Tschaikovsky's beloved "Nutcracker Suite." Amidst a setting of eight gold-grilled gates suspended across the front of the stage and two stairways beginning from center stage and leading into space in the background, selected ballet dancers, chosen from the girls' physical education department, assisted the choir in their production and added color and action to the seven movements of "The Suite." Dancing was under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham.

Girls' Glee club, attired in pastel formals and carrying white and gold Christmas wreaths, also participated in the show. Another contribution of the choir was "A Psalm of Praise," a modern number with a trumpet trio, tympani and drum accompaniment.

Marching Band

"And the band played on . . . "

One hundred and twenty-five musicians carried out their traditional appearances this year at games, in convocations, in parades and in concerts for the last time under the baton of Lowell C. Bradford, who is retiring from teaching.

The band began its fall marching season with an appearance in the Merry-Go-Round halftime pageant entitled, "Sacks Appeal." "Left, Right Out of Your Heart." "Twelfth Street Rag" and the football princess ceremony were other marching demonstrations presented by the band and the Red Feathers. Late in November, 100 band members marched in the Washington State college home-coming parade at Pullman.

The 59th annual formal concert was given in April by the band and its supplementary organizations. Providing entertainment for the Intermountain Loggers convention at the Coliseum and for the Parent-Teacher association meeting at which the Freedom Shrine Documents were presented to the school are among other spring activities.

As "honor" band and marching unit, the musicians and Red Feathers held a featured position at this year's Washington State Apple Blossom Festival in Wenatchee. Their appearance in the Lilac Festival functions as host band were of equal importance.

Without a doubt, "Brad" and his "musical red coats" have gained a reputation unexcelled in the Northwest.

Football

"I believe we had the strongest team in the league physically, but we lacked team speed," stated Dave Holmes, head football coach, at the close of the 1958 season. "The boys played hard but didn't get many breaks."

Action in the annual Vic Dessert Merry-Go-Round game saw North Central take fourth place. A touchdown and a field goal gave John Rogers a 10-0 decision in first period activity before Gonzaga edged the Braves 6-0 in the third quarter.

Bad breaks caused a narrow loss to Richland. Although outplaying the Bombers, the Indians were on the short end of a 20-14 score. The game saw North Central fumble a kickoff and make a bad punt snap.

After trailing 19-6 at the half, the Tribe countered with two touchdowns and a conversion to tie eventual city league champion Lewis and Clark, 19-19.

Capitalizing on five North Central fumbles, Rogers toppled the Braves to second place. North Central's Jim Moore broke loose for an 88-yard scoring run. It was the only Indian score as the Pirates won 27-7.

Displaying a strong defense, the squad rolled over Gonzaga 25-6. The Zags penetrated inside the Indian 35, five times, once getting to the one-foot line.

Indians. The loss put the Tribe in a second-place tie with Rogers.

A 21-7 victory over West Valley closed the season for the Braves.

Jim Moore, Bob Ullrich, Tom Collins, Bill Bailey, Larry Summers, Ron Albo and Tom Alberts represented North Central on the various all-city teams. Receiving honorable mention were Ralph Jones, Joe Perez and Mickey Carney.

B-Squad Football

"We didn't have more than four starters that had played freshman football last year," said Coach Dale Blair of his B-squad gridders. Many of the boys were playing tackle football for the first time.

"We had a large turnout, however, and finished the season with 45 ballplayers.

"None of the boys were very big, considering age and size, and most of them were still growing."

Outstanding players mentioned by the coach included: Eric Wolters, captain and recipient of the inspirational award; Marv Henthorn, Bill Randall, Steve Anderson, Bob Sleeth, Tom Hedemark and George Cheroke.

The B's finished the season with a 4-4 record.

Frosh Football

"With a leader, these boys should form the nucleus of a city championship team before they are graduated," said Coach Jerry Stannard of his freshman footballers. "There are some very good athletes in the eager group that turned out. They suffered the loss of two coaches during the season."

Conforming to the style of three different coaches was a problem faced by the freshman gridders this year. Coach Walt Spangenberg suffered an ulcer attack early in the year and the reins were taken over by Nicholas Scarpelli, who was transferred here from Libby junior high school.

Then Scarpelli became ill and Athletic Director Jerry Stannard took over the squad following the first game. He coached the Papooses for the remainder of the season.

Basketball

"We had a team of real fighters this year; and although we didn't enjoy the type of season we would have liked, we were close contenders in all ball games but one," said Jerry Stannard, Indian basketball coach.

The Braves opened the season against Chewelah December 5, by waltzing to an easy 65-28 victory. Sharp shooting and a deadly fast break made the victory margin.

Sandpoint toppled the Indians the following night, 46-44, in a game which saw both teams play at the wrong basket for two minutes of the second half.

Cocur d'Alene downed the Tribe 56-53 m a hot contest December 19.

Sharp-shooting Kellogg, led by Rich Porter and Jeff Womboldt, dealt a tired Indian crew their third loss 62-43 on the following night at Kellogg.

League play opened December 12 as the Braves handed Gonzaga a 40-34 defeat. Leading 27-14 at the half, North Central held off a third-quarter surge by the Zags and went on to win.

Eastmont of Wenatchee fell before the Indians 50-42 on the next night. A unique feature of the trip for the players was spending the night in the homes of the Eastmont ball players.

Kellogg-North Central match, this time at Shadle Park. Kellogg took the game 52-39 and went on to a 20-1 record in regular season play.

West Valley fell before the Indians 42-27 as league play resumed January 2. A scoring edge of 15 points in the fourth quarter provided the Braves the margin of victory.

Upstart Shadle Park upset the Reducen 42-38 in an error-lilled contest resulting in the first NC league loss.

Central Valley downed the Tribe 40-31, January 16, with strong rebounding and good foul shooting.

Sporting identical 2-2 league records, Lewis and Clark met the Tribe in a "battle to stay alive" in the city league. LC emerged a 44-38 victor and the Braves began to fall out of contention.

Wrapping up first-half action, Rogers squeaked by a fired-up Indian squad 52-50, dumping NC to fifth place.

Gonzaga surprised the Redmen 56-39 February 6 in the "one game" mentioned by Coach Stannard.

A road game with Wenatchee was scheduled on the Braves' league bye and Wenatchee took the win. The team again spent the night in the home of the opposing ballplayers.

West Valley defeated the Redskins 52-41 February 17, extending the Indian losing streak to seven.

Victory finally returned to the Indian tepee February 20, as Shadle Park fell to the Tribe 43-42 in a wild contest.

Central Valley handed NC a 44-35 defeat February 24, and Lewis and Clark dumped the Redmen 44-40 three days later.

After leading most of the way, the Braves fell before Rogers in the season finale, 53-46, placing the Tribe in a last-place tie with Gonzaga.

Mel Stapleton and Clint Britt received second team and honorable mention awards on various all-city teams. Britt was awarded the captain's trophy and Larry Summers received the free throw trophy.

The basketball banquet, held in the Desert hotel Round-up room, put finishing touches on the season.

B-Squad Basketball

North Central's B squad ended its regular-season play with a 9-9 record, constituting a solid fourth-place finish.

"We had, I think, a fairly successful season," said Coach Nip Hagen. "The boys had tremendous team spirit. If sickness hadn't hit us in the last half of the season, we might have placed much higher."

After losing four out of six games in the first round, the fighting Indians came back to reverse the process and win their next four out of six tilts. Steve Anderson's average of 17.5 points per game was tops for the team.

Freshman Basketball

Freshman hoopsters ended their season with a 3-7 record and a fourth-place tie with Gonzaga.

After winning their initial tilt against Shadle, the Little Braves lost four straight, then won two games and closed out the season with three straight defeats.

"We have several good prospects for varsity competition," reminisced freshman Coach Edward Kretz. "With a little more experience, many of our losses would have been reversed. However, the team showed wonderful improvement in the second half of league play."

Junior Varsity Baseball

"I will carry an 18-man squad," was Coach William Lowther's early-season comment concerning the junior varsity baseball team. "Right now it appears that I have four good pitchers in Gary Kaatz, Steve Anderson, Ron Smith and Charles Bass."

This was Lowther's first year as junior varsity coach. He was transferred to North Central from Libby Junior High, where he coached the freshmen.

Freshman Baseball

"Baseball is a game that is learned by playing every day," said Bill Diedrick, freshman baseball coach, "We try to play as many games as possible during the season.

"This year approximately 30 games were scheduled for the frosh. Usually we try to play about 20 games; however, our league schedule began slightly later this year than in previous seasons, and we had time for more practice contests."

Cross Country

"This season we completed our second year in a row of being undefeated in dual meets," said Burrill Exley, cross-country coach. "We took the city championship and the Inland Empire championship for the second straight year."

North Central had some of the best twomile runners in the state, as the record shows. Mel Stapleton, who finished first in every dual meet, Esse Bjorklund and Steve Poutre were named by the coach as his top three men.

The team lost only two meets during the season—the all-city meet and the Amateur Athletic Union meet.

Noteworthy was the Inland Empire meet at the University of Idaho in which five of the first 10 across the finish line were Indian runners. Stapleton won the race.

Varsity Track

North Central thinclads opened their season by placing second in the North Central Relays, a North Central-sponsored preseason meet. This was the first competition for the new seven-team league which includes new entrants Shadle Park, Central Valley and West Valley.

Boosting the Indian squad were returning lettermen Steve Poutre and Mel Stapleton, mile; Esse Bjorklund and Dennis Gratton, 880, and Alan Balderson and Steve Bischoff. 100 and 220.

Others who looked good in early season were Clint Britt, high hurdles; Tom Collins, low hurdles; Jim Moore, pole vault; Gene Robards and Larry Thorsted, high jump; Glenn Talbott, 880; George Kraft, 100 and 440, and Dennis Wilde and Lynn Keys, 440.

Junior Varsity Track

"Frequent advancements with ease from junior varsity to varsity provide jayvee trackmen with immediate recognition or improvement," said Burrill Exley, head track coach, "Track is different from other sports in that these changes are often made and the team rosters are in no way established or settled.

"It is for this reason that the boys pictured on this page may not all be junior varsity trackmen; and certainly the boys in the action shots are not."

Led by Larry Lee, medalist with a score of 73, North Central golfers under the able coaching of Raymond Simonson, won the Lewiston Invitational Golf Tournament March 28, with a total team score of 325.

Other Indian golfers making the journey were Jim Ellsworth, Jim Gozzeto and Mike Mix. About ten teams from all over the Inland Empire participated in the event.

"Eighteen boys, including numerous lettermen, have turned out," revealed Coach Simonson. "I was very pleased with their showing at Lewiston."

The Tribe won its opening league match against Rogers, 12-6, April 6 at Esmeralda. Larry Lee paced the match with a 73.

Indian Canyon was the scene of two other tournaments participated in by the golfers—mixed two-ball on May 4 and the Inland Empire on May 11. The golfers league season began on April 6 and ran through May 25.

Girls' Golf

For the first time in several years, the North Central girls' golf team yielded first place to another high school. Shadle Park defeated them for the city championship.

Though fewer in number than in previous years, the girls worked hard and have shown progress under the direction of Neil Christian, golf instructor at Esmeralda, and Miss Carol Houck, faculty director.

Every Tuesday and Thursday, the girls went either to Highbridge or to Esmeralda where they practiced to improve their strokes.

Intramural tournaments are held in both the fall and spring season. The players were ranked according to the outcome of these matches, and the ones with the highest scores played in the all-city golf tournament.

Sue Breeden was the captain of the team during the fall season, and Gail Gladder was manager.

Dennis Regis, Robert Helm and Coach Mack Saunders.

Boys' Tennis

A third-place finish in fall competition marked the beginning of Mack Saunders' reign as head tennis coach at North Central this year.

Having taken over the team from Ernie Hix last spring, Coach Saunders said, "We had a fair season. We didn't finish on top, but we didn't finish on the bottom either."

Prospects are bright for next year, according to the coach. Presently having only four seniors, the team will have many boys returning to the squad.

"We hope to better our third-place finish," said Saunders, "and returning lettermen can help us do it."

Seniors Bob Larson, Jim Engstrom and Chuck Hiatt have been leaders on the team throughout the year. Sophomore Glenn Du-Pree, a transfer from Havermale junior high, was one of the top contenders and played in the No. 1 position part of the season.

Girls' Tennis

Placing second in the all-city fall termis tournament, the girls' termis team is practicing every free minute to be ready for the tournament this spring.

Fall competition was keen when the North Central racketeers began to "smash and lob" in the single round-robin played with each of the four other high schools participating—Lewis and Clark, Rogers, West Valley and Central Valley.

Fall semester co-captains were Joanne Bolma and Judy Ladwig. Robin Gordon and Janice Baker captained the spring team.

The girls have practiced every Monday and Wednesday during period 6, after school and "bright and early" on many Saturday mornings.

Recording the scores of the practice sets and ranking the players accordingly were Cecelia Reuss, manager, and Janet Piper, assistant manager.

Girls'

Evidenced by their enthusiasm and hard work, the North Central song and yell leaders typify the essence of school spirit.

Sophomore girls are eligible to try out for songleader the first semester of each year. From among those who try out, ten or eleven are chosen to be members of the songleading class the second semester.

In this class they are taught all the school songs and yells by the veteran songleaders. Toward the end of the school year, there is a final tryout when five girls are chosen to be songleaders for the next two years. Those who do not make songleader automatically become Red Feathers, an equally important honor.

Miss Pinkham, head of the girls' physical education department, is retiring this year after 39 years of dedicated service to the girls of North Central.

In the years she has been here, she has had as her goal not only the coaching of the girls in various sports and dances, but the forming of good health habits and manners. In a word she has helped in developing them into young ladies.

Red

"Come on you Indians . . . "

The cheers of one hundred Red Feathers resound as the Indian team moves down the field. Dressed in their sparkling white uniforms trimmed with red, this distinctive marching unit has attained a fame of its own throughout the years.

Formed twenty years ago by Elsa Pinkham, who is still its director, the group has been a lasting tradition.

Twice each year tryouts are held for junior and senior girls. Members are chosen for marching and dancing ability, grade average and participation in activities of the physical education department. The girls perform before Miss Pinkham and the Red Feathers officers.

This organized cheering section is the backbone at North Central's sporting events. Red Feathers demonstrate their ability in stunts and parades. Their school spirit, that indefinable leeling, inspires them to give their all for the Red and Black.

Interest in supporting North Central's sports events is advanced by the Red Feathers ticket selling contest to choose football and spring sports princesses. A student body vote makes the linal decision.

Marching into the stadium as the band plays, singing "Red and Black" after a close victory, screaming "hip hip hurray" when a hook shot sinks through the hoop, taking part in the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival, and best of all, knowing and associating with girls who truly love North Central has given each Red Feather an abundance of happy memories.

Color girls, which had its beginning in 1930 with 20 freshman and sophomore girls, has now increased its membership to 80 to become the third largest marching unit at North Central.

The girls, who make a striking picture in their deep red sweaters with arrowhead emblems, black skirts and spotless white shoes, promote ticket sales, partake in fund-raising, charitable projects and participate in football half-time stunts and parades.

In order to try out, the girls must be active in the girls' physical education department and have C grades or better.

Each semester, tryouts are held to select new members. Miss Barbara Simpson, director, and the Color Girl officers act as judges as the girls go through routine marching drills and dance steps. They are judged on the basis of attendance, health, co-operation in school activities and good citizenship. Incoming freshmen nominated by their grade school teachers and their principal, are received directly into the organization.

The Color Girl officers are elected each semester from among their sophomores. A banquet is held at the end of the first semester to install the new officers and to introduce the new members.

This year the Color Girls performed in two half-time stunts with the Red Feathers at the stadium during football season.

The aim of the group is to develop each girl physically, mentally and socially.

Girls' Basketball

Five girls collide as they reach for the ball in a tense basketball game.

Eight teams participated in the basketball tourney during the months of November and December. The teams, two from each class, met after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays. One-hundred fifteen girls played ball.

"Junior D's," co-captained by Bonnie Underdahl and Linda Ayers, won the tournament. The "D's" suffered only one defeat. The "Rice Chicks," a freshman team, was the second-place winner.

The remaining six teams were: Nottie Nine, and the Senior B, both Senior teams; Oddities. Juniors: Redskins, and the Sophomore Sophisticates, Sophomores; Spinets, Freshman.

Managers for the games were Evelyn Wellhouse, Star Fahlman and Enid Norby.

All-activity points were awarded according to the number of games in which the girls participated. Gym make-ups were also given.

Girls' Volleyball

A new type of volleybalf—Wildcat—was played in this year's tournament.

In Wildcat volleyball the ball can bounce once on each side of the court after each serve without it being field against the team. The only catch is that the ball may be hit with just one hand.

Six teams participated in the fall tourney. Games were played after school in the old gym on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Two practice sessions, one for juniors and seniors and the other for freshmen and sophomores, were held preceding the regular season.

The Little Indians, captained by Shirley Sexon, and the Spacettes, captained by Connic Ingebritson, tied for first-place honors. Each of the teams won five games and lost one.

Miss Simpson and Miss Houck, the advisers, refereed. Marion Humphries also refereed.

Kay Worthington and Sally Liere watch expectantly as Joyce Henslee prepares to volley the ball.

Badminton

"Wood" echoes the familiar ring of the referees in girls' intramural badminton tourneys!

Over 46 girls turned out for the doubles tournament after school. Robbin Gordon and Ginger Eacho took first place by defeating Janice Baker and Linda Randall.

Thirty girls, meeting before school, played for the junior-senior singles title. It was won by Janice Baker who defeated Robbin Gordon and the other finalists, Bonnie Underdahl and Linda Randall.

Consolation doubles were won by Julia Kyle and Kathy McDonald who defeated Judy Smith and Bonnie Underdahl. The singles title went to Sherry Hindman who defeated Carol Quarles.

Miss Barbara Simpson coached doubles and Miss Elsa Pinkham supervised singles.

Winner of doubles championship were Robbin Gordon and Ginger Eacho.

Frances Hawk, Yulene Campbell, Pat Belair, Nancy Hoering, Marilyn Nyberg, Betty Gamon, Karen
Carter, Joyce Henslee, Lois Ellis, Judy Bennett, Pat Wellhouser, Carole Hay.

Girls' Softball

"Strike three—you're out!"

Six teams of girl softball players met every Tuesday and Thursday morning before school to play a single round robin of softball, or five games. The girls met on Kennedy Field at 7:30 a.m. and played until 8:15 a.m. Miss Barbara Simpson, supervisor, kept three diamonds busy at once. The thirty-four girls who turned out this spring were trained to umpire their own games.

In May, girls turned out for the annual intramural track meet. All girls were urged to participate. Events included the shot-put, broad jump, high jump, 50-yard dash, 75-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 370-yard dash, and baseball and basketball throws for distance.

"Safe" calls umpire Judy Bennett as catcher Shirley Sexson tries to tag Pennie Lane on homeplate.

Ice Skating

Seventy-seven boys and girls attended the Wednesday, period six and after-school ice-skating class, held in the Coliseum from October through February.

Miss Elsa Pinkham was adviser to the group. Barbara Lingle and Martin Wilson, seniors were co-chairmen.

During the lessons, the beginning skaters are taught such preliminary dances as the canasta, the Dutch waltz, and the fiesta tango; school figures, such as edges, figure eights, three turns, and the Mohawk; and free skating including one and two-foot spins, spirals, and the waltz jump. The advanced skaters work on school figures for the first eight figure tests, and free skating for jumps, spins and stroking.

Horseback Riding

The learning of good "horse sense" and proper equestrian etiquette are among many advantages enjoyed by the boys and girls who turn out for horseback riding.

- Thirty-nine students participated in afterschool riding every Thursday, weather permitting. Each time they went riding, they took a new and different trail.

Miss Simpson, faculty adviser, transported the "riders" to and from the riding stables in the Indian Wagon. Evelyn Wellhouser, junior, assisted Miss Simpson.

All-activity points toward shields and stars were awarded on the basis of the number of hours of riding. Many of the girls found that horseback riding was not only an excellent exercise and an enjoyable experience, but a satisfactory way to earn gym make-ups.

Riding the trail are Evelyn Wellhouser, Pat Wellhouser,
Donna Schilling, Judy Maughan, Kathy
O'Keefe, Joyce Tollefson.

Swimming

Free swims, races and Red Cross beginning, intermediate and advanced tests highlighted afternoons of swimming for over 100 girls who turned out on Mondays throughout the year.

Perfecting numerous strokes and passing the Red Cross swim tests were the main objectives of this girls' after-school swimming group, under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham, physical education department head.

Advanced and beginning swimmers alike were urged to turn out and learn the principal rules of water safety and how to become a "top swimmer."

All-activity points, to go toward an all-activity shield and stars, and gym make-ups for each time a girl turned out, were awarded to girls who took part in this after-school sport regularly.

Helping Miss Pinkham were chairmen Joyce Henslee and Marilyn Nyberg.

BOWLING—First row: Larry Mellgren, Pinsplitters; Doris Pfeiffer, Pinspotters; Frances Hawk, Winehahas; Ron Wirseh, Pinsplitters

Second row: Cathy Prihar, Pinspotters; Larry Varner, Pinbusters; Don Davis, Pinbusters; Bev Thompson, Pinspotters.

Bowling

"Keep 'em rolling."

For the past three years, North Central junior bowlers have been occupying the 24 lanes at North Bowl in league competition on Thursdays, under the direction of Miss Pat Damon, Mrs. Ruth Coon and Raymond Simonson.

Beginning and advanced bowlers alike are eligible to compete in one of the three leagues—one boys' group and two girls' groups. Membership in the American Junior Bowling Congress, which is required, gives each member a chance to win awards for outstanding performances during the season.

Trophies are awarded at the end of the year to the winning team of each league and to the high-series girl and boy.

Match games were rolled with teams from Shadle and Rogers and with women teachers from North Central. The girls walked off with the honors in the Rogers match, and split the games bowled with the teachers. Shadle was defeated by the North Central boys in a homeand-home match.

When you think about it, the family photographer falls somewhere in the family doctor-lawyer classification. The photographer, like the doctor and lawyer, is called upon when major events in your lifetime occur.

With a fine studio portrait you can relive in later years the happiness of the engagement, the wedding, the arrival of children. A photograph is part of forever, and our studio takes this responsibility seriously.
